

Widow's Burden

In the tradition of great narrative poetry comes Robert Cooperman's latest collection, a tale ripped from today's headlines but as timeless as Homer's long-suffering warriors and Milton's war between good and evil. This tale of the "real" Old West is told in poetry that is at once elegant yet accessible. Cooperman peppers his plain-spoken story with vivid and unforgettable characters: the murderous knight-errant, John Sprockett; the weak-willed man of the cloth, Rev. Thomas Birden; the capricious soiled dove, Mary LaFrance; the venal Sheriff Dennehy; and the tracker William Eagle Feather. The most vivid character is Lavinia Burden, who is torn between the conventions of civilization, and her love of the wilderness and the man who embodies all its savage beauty. Open this book and you'll never think about the Old West in the same way again. Prepare yourself for a tale of treachery, tenderness, betrayal, fidelity, hypocrisy, and a love that transcends conventions, time and death itself.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Base price with tax $8.58

Price with discount $7.95

Salesprice with discount

Sales price $8.58

Discount

Tax amount $0.63

Ask a question about this product

Description

Price: $12.95

136 Pages

7 Illustrations

Width: 5.00

Height: 7.50

ISBN: 1-890437-63-8

Softbound

Reviews

Other: Widow's Burden

There are yet no reviews for this product.